Pro-Build's Dixieline Lumber Company Opens New Retail Lumber & Home Center Facility in Murrieta, California

San Diego, CA (May 24, 2007) – San Diego-based Dixieline Lumber Company, a major supplier of high-quality building materials to professional builders and contractors, announced today the opening of their new Lumber & Home Center facility in the growing community of Murrieta, California located in the heart of Riverside County.

Dixieline Lumber Company services the needs of contractors, builders and homeowners throughout San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino and Kern counties. Current operations include 4 lumber and EWP distribution centers, 3 truss manufacturing plants and 12 home centers.

"Southwest Riverside continues to be an area of tremendous growth and opportunity." said Joe Lawrence, President of Dixieline Lumber Company. "Our presence will provide the builder and contractor with a much needed local resource for lumber and building materials, along with the service and product selection we provide the project-oriented homeowner. We've watched this area develop over the years and are extremely excited to be a part of this vibrant region."

We couldn't be more excited about Dixieline's growth in the Southwest," says Dave Dittmer, President, PRO-Build West Region. "They've been able to successfully blend the needs of the retail customer and the professional builder-contractor over their 90 year history. We see tremendous opportunity for the company as we continue our expansion in the Southwest."

Dixieline Murrieta is located in a large retail development called The Orchard at Stone Creek. This newly constructed facility on a four-acre parcel includes a 27,000 sq. ft. retail footprint, 2,000 sq. ft. mill and a two and one half-acre lumber yard. Over 70 employees will be on-site. A contractor sales office will personally assist production and custom contractors while a full-service Kitchen & Bath Design Center and complete Door & Window Showroom will assist homeowners and contractors alike. For projects needing a fund control service, Dixieline Murrieta will provide the convenience of a fully-staffed Fund Control office.
